January 2015 10 Tevet - 11 Shevat 5775

Mission Statement: Temple Beth-El is a congregation of Jews and their families building a community committed to participation in all aspects of Jewish life. By community, we mean a group of diverse people who share a strong connection fostered by Temple Beth-El. By participation, we mean that all members will partake in and support the spiritual, cultural, educational and social life of Temple Beth-El.

Time to "Consider the Conversation"

On Sunday, January 18th beginning at 10:00 the Adult Education Committee of Temple Beth-El will present a program discussing end-of-life care. Our guest will be Kellie Miller from Northern Illinois Hospice. Kellie will show the documentary film "Consider the Conversation" which examines the multiple perspectives on end-of-life care. The discussion asks the question, "How do you want to live before you die?" The program will include an open discussion on identifying what is important to you and how you can communicate these wishes to your loved ones.

Kellie Miller from Northern Illinois Hospice will bring written material and other reference material to assist in this important topic. Everyone knows someone who is getting older or is getting older. This important program will begin at 10:00 AM, Sunday, January 18th at the Temple. Learn how to live out our lives in a rich meaningful way. We hope you will join. Admission is free.

Shalom Chaverim,

As I write this, I have been enjoying a very nice and long overdue vacation in Daytona Beach, Florida. We are staying with my in-laws and it has been very relaxing. Even though it's a little cool here (mid-60s, low 70s - I know, feel sorry for me...), we've managed to go to the pool and the beach. We even spent a day at Disney-world. Sometime in the future, I'll share about my experiences with you. One quirky thing I'll share with you now as it applies to the arrival of the new year.

From Rabbi Binah Wing

Even though my in-laws live 10 minutes from the beach, they hardly ever go there. It took us, traveling thousands of miles from Rockford, IL to get them to go. While there, it was lovely and we all had a nice time.

How often do we dismiss, forget about, or generally just ignore the treasures around us? Even though Rockford has it's problems, it does have a lot to offer. Perhaps we might all set a goal this year of taking better advantage of the place in which we live, instead of waiting for a visitor to make us appreciate it?

And while we're at it, perhaps we could also use this time to relish the other blessings in our lives - family, friends, shelter, sustenance, love, health, just being alive. It's easy to forget how much there is to appreciate.

May 2015 bring many gifts and blessings your way and abundant peace to all.

Shalom,
Rabbi Wing

Consider the Conversation

a documentary on a taboo subject

Produced by Michael Bernhagen and Terry Kaldhusdal

A Documentary on a Taboo Subject is an intimate story about the American struggle with communication and preparation at life's end. It contains the perspectives of patients, family members, doctors, nurses, social workers, clergy and national experts from around the country. The goal of this film is to inspire dialogue between patient and doctor, husband and wife, minister and parishioner, parent and child. Join us.....

Kellie Miller—Northern Illinois Hospice

From the Temple Board.... By Secretary Ellen Salley

The Temple board met on December 11th, 2014. Brina called the meeting to order and Rabbi shared a prayer about winter. The minutes of the last meeting were read, a correction was made and the minutes were then approved.

Rabbi reported that the combined service for Thanksgiving was very good and more churches are interested in participating. She also announced that she will be on staff this summer during OSRUI. She will be finding service leaders to replace her while she is there. David Sklar will replace her when she is on her vacation. This will be Friday December 26th.

The Temple Hanukkah dinner was held on December 19th at 6:00. On January 18th, an adult education presentation on "Consider the Conversation" will be held. Also there is a list of plaques from Ohave Shalom. Please check this list to see if you or someone you know would be interested in claiming the plaque.

The Foundation continues to do well.

GRTY went bowling with the Healing Pathway students and had a good time. They also had a presentation from 15 presenters from the Temple and the community on career education. The presentation was awesome. The religious school students made challah with Ronit Golan and did an art project with Sandy Simon entitled "Gratitude Project A-Z."

In this month's bulletin you will see a new article entitled "A Minute with a Member." A Temple member will be featured each month. We will again be collecting school supplies for the Rockford schools for second semester. Also mark your calendars for January 31st when the Zussman's will be hosting a social evening. Chocolate and Havdalah is involved! Continue to send in rummage for the sale in March.

We are looking into ways to make the building more secure.

The board wishes everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

Brina's Bits

It is hard to believe that 2014 has gone by so fast and we are beginning 2015. I have been the President of Temple Beth-El for one year and it's time to reflect and look forward. How am I doing? How are you doing as the congregation?

So, what are the duties of the Temple President? According to the Constitution of Temple Beth-El, the President enforces the Constitution, presides over all meetings of the Congregation and the Board of Directors, signs all official documents on behalf of the Congregation, appoints committee chair people and serves as an ex-officio member of all committees, casts the deciding vote on all questions in which there is an equal division of votes, submits a written report at the annual meeting, is the principal executive officer of the Congregation, has general charge and supervision of the affairs of the Congregation, and carries out other duties that normally pertain to the office of President.

The President is also responsible for the congregation. What makes our membership feel welcome, wanted and fulfilled? I was so thrilled to see a full sanctuary for the farewell to Judy and Chuck Picus and again for the conversion of the Quimbys and the Aufruf for the Pearlmans. It is very rewarding to see more people at our services. What will encourage you to come more often in the New Year? I would like to hear from you on this and any subject.

I think one of the hardest parts of the role of President is writing this article on a monthly basis. I enjoy meeting and greeting members and guests visiting the Temple. I try to meet with Rabbi once a week to touch base with her, but writing this begs for your input on subjects that might be of interest to you or questions that I can address that would be of interest to the entire membership. I hope one of your new year's resolutions might be to drop me a quick note and let me know how I can make this next year an even better one for us all.

I hope you all have a healthy, happy, peaceful new year.
See you soon,
Brina

SCHOOL DAZE

200 Words or Less...

By Goldie & Adrian

We had a great Chanukah party on Sunday, the 14th with lots of things going on! Max Weinstein from OSRUI Jewish camp came for a visit and shared everything you would want to know about the camp experience! We saw the newest video and answered all questions. Everyone went home with the 2015 brochure, OSRUI wrist bands and free slushy cards to redeem at camp. We are grateful to the Garten and Dermer funds for helping to provide camperships for four students this coming summer.

Sandy Simon led the students in their special photo frame art project and Mike Reid and Jordan Towne led Chanukah bingo games. The culminating event of any Jewish holiday is the food and our chef in residence, Ronit, didn't disappoint. We had traditional latkes and jelly doughnuts along with hot dogs, salad and other yummys! Thanks to Ronit's kitchen helpers Dan Libman, David Goldblum, Amy Towne and Faye Marcus. The Jewish Federation, Religious School and Hadassah sponsored this event. This "Potato Pancakes for Parkinson's" luncheon is in memory of Sterne Roufa. All donations collected will go towards research for this disease. Thanks to everyone who lent a hand during the morning.

Please consider signing up for Schnuck's e-Scrip program for Religious School if you haven't done so yet. It's easy to do. Just stop at the customer service desk at the store. We have been averaging between $50 -$60 a month due to the points earned for us by you shopping there. Thanks so much! It's easy to do and we sure can use your help! By signing up you will also get breaks on Mobile gas purchases.

Have a great winter break. Hope you enjoyed your Chanukah celebrations and mark your calendars for our special Family Shabbat evening on Friday, January 16th!

Till next time, Shalom.

TEMPLE BETH-EL MINUTE WITH A MEMBER

Dear TBE Friends:

The bulletin this month will feature our first "Minute with a Member". Please take a few moments to learn a bit more about our President of the TBE Board, Brina Grigg. Below are her answers to a few questions. We hope you will enjoy getting to know her a bit more!

-Tell a little about yourself and family: I was born and raised in Peoria, IL. I moved to Rockford on December 31, 1979 and became a member of Temple Beth-El in 1980. My two sons were born and raised in Rockford and attended Religious School and Hebrew School at Temple Beth-El and became Bar Mitzvahs. Like so many children, they have moved away from Rockford.

-Something people would be surprised to learn about you/us: When I was in high school, I rode quarter horses.

-Your favorite Temple activities: Singing in the choir is my favorite Temple activity.

-A memorable moment at Temple Beth-El: My most memorable moment at TBE was being asked by Rabbi Wing to carry the Torah during a Friday night service. I was overcome with joy and had goose bumps. Having been raised in a conservative synagogue in Peoria, IL, I never thought I would carry a Torah.

-Favorite Judaic holiday or food: Latkes with sour cream is my favorite holiday food.

-What is the biggest challenge you have ever faced? At the age of 3, my oldest son, Marty became insulin dependent. It broke my heart to have to prick my son's finger four times a day and give him shots.

-If you could meet anyone, living or dead, who would you want to meet? Having grown up in Central Illinois, I would like to have met Abraham Lincoln, the great emancipator.

-What was your first job? I worked the concession stand at the Fox Theater in Peoria IL. It was torn down and is now a Super 8 Motel.

TBE SOCIAL ACTION ON THE MOVE...

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

Second semester of the school year is right
around the corner!
Students have already used up a good deal of school supplies from the start of the year.

The Social Action
Committee of Temple
Beth-El would like to help Spring Creek Elementary School replenish these supplies.

Please consider donating some new school supplies to this worthy cause. There will be a box set up in the library for collections.

Some items that are always needed are: pencils,
pens, spiral notebooks, notebook paper, solid colored folders, crayons, markers, etc. Monetary donations are always welcome (please leave in the office, with checks made out to Temple Beth- El).

Let's help our children in the community have a successful learning experience by being able to use some new school supplies this winter!

Any questions, please contact Faye Marcus:

Thank You.....

The Temple has been the recipient of donations from the Temple Family in the name of many funds in order to supply much needed money for worthwhile programs and projects. We would like to spotlight a couple of these funds.

The Robert and Joel Garten Youth and Scholarship Fund is to provide camper-ships for religious school students. This fund is administered by the Education Committee and the Rabbi.

The Michael Dermer Religious School Fund was established for the purpose of raising money to support religious school activities. This fund is used to provide enrichment programs, scholarships and youth activities.

GRTY NEWS

Submitted by: Co-President Nathaniel Huss

GRTY had the pleasure of listening to guest speakers discuss their various professions on Career Day on December 7th. The teens were able to ask questions as 15 guest speakers gave an overview of their job and the path they had to take to get to their career choices. The careers discussed were medical practices, law, engineering, education, physical therapy, accounting, broadcast journalism and a multitude of others. After each presenter gave his/her five minute speech, kids were able to conference with the presenters that intrigued them. The day proved to be an enlightening one for GRTY.

On December 14th, GRTY had the annual Hanukkah party. The teens enjoyed two games of Laser Quest, and then they ate a delicious dinner at Shogun next door. The chefs dazzled GRTY with their special skills on and off of the grill. They always put on a good show! The teens also received gifts as part of a Secret Maccabee gift exchange. GRTY also did a mitzvah by bringing gifts, ranging from necessary items to entertainment items, to Rockford's Cancer Resource Center, Healing Pathways.

Coming up on the GRTY calendar, we have NFTY CANOE Winter Kallah at OSRUI the weekend of December 19th-21st. We have the Soup Kitchen on December 28th, and after that, the Executive Board will experience leadership training on January 11th. The teens will have fun at our annual Lock-in/Game Night on January 17th, and to cap January off, the teens will go ice skating on the 25th.

I already have $ome $tuff and I $imply can't think of anything el$e I need, $o if you like, you can ju$t $end me a $imple card a$ I would love to hear from you.

Love,
Your $on Moi$he

His father replies: -

Dear Moishe,

I kNOW that astroNOmy, ecoNOmics, and oceaNOgraphy are probably NOT eNOough to keep even an hoNOurs student busy. But do NOT forget that the pursuit of kNOWledge is a NOble task and one can never study eNOough.

Love,
Your father,
ArNOld
